Most memorable riding story

The Hungarian national dressage champion has been at the Wintermühle in Germany since 2002. In the past I was more at home with the jumping saddle. Now he is successful in dressage up to the Grand Prix Special. A highlight of his riding career until now was the participation in the World Riding Games in Aachen in 2006.

Hobbies

fishing

Spoken languages

Hungarian, German, a little bit of English

Most influential person

his father, Stefan Lange, trainer now is Udo Lange (not related!)

Why

Udo Lange is the one that always teaches perseverance, He will never give up and learns you to always continue going for your goal.

Ambitions during sporting career

To compete at the WEG 2010 Kentucky and probably after that at the OG London 2010. I already have earned my qualification for the WEG 2010.

Other information

My trainer Udo Lange has been the one that helped me working towards the 25th World Cup™ Final in 's-Hertogenbosch 2010. We worked on a complete new Freestyle. Hungarian composer Oliver Hahn composed the music for this new Freestyle. Unfortunately a week for the date my horse Weinzauber suffered from fever and had to get medication for that. Therefore we cannot compete. I feel very sorry for that as it would have been my first World Cup Final appearance.

Why riding

It is something I wanted to do all my life. The relationship with a horse to perform together is something very special for me. I am quite athletic and love many sports including cycling, running, skating and swimming.

When participated at the first international competition

2007

and where

In Falsterbo, Sweden. Surprised the world by finishing second behind Swedish star Jan Brink. Adelinde's first international contest was in Falsterbo, Sweden, in 2007. She surprised the world by becoming the runner up behind Swedish star Jan Brink.

Current sponsor(s)

Jerich International, Havens, Anky Technical Casuals and Olaf Bijlsma

Most memorable riding story

Adelinde's first international contest was in Falsterbo, Sweden, in 2007. She surprised the world by becoming the runner up behind Swedish star Jan Brink. She surprised the world even more by becoming the runner up behind Isabell Werth in the biggest international CDI of the world Aachen 2008, only her third international contest abroad. The choice for the Dutch Olympic team had been made before Aachen and Adelinde and her horse Parzival became the reserve rider for the Dutch squad for the Olympic Games 2008. The year 2009 became rather unbelievable. Adelinde scored a World Record in the Grand Prix Special (84,04%) and won the individual gold medal at the Europeans in Windsor, next to the team gold medal with the Dutch and the individual silver medal in the Freestyle. After all those successes coincidences that decided her choices in the past, now again helped her further. Through a new Grand Prix horse Jerich Wunschtraum owned by Herbert Jerich from Austria, she finally could welcome a sponsor who helped her to buy the second half of her medal horse Parzival from co-owner Henk Koers.

Hobbies

All sports.

Spoken languages

Dutch, English and German.

Superstitions

None

Most influential person

It's not just one person.

Why

I am grateful to my Mum and Dad for teaching me everything in life and to my trainers who helped me to the place where I am now, especially Johan Hemmings at the start and Sjef Janssen now.

Ambitions during sporting career

Simply to get better every day and to improve with Parzival and hopefully with a lot of other horses to come.

Ambitions after sporting career

No thoughts, I have only started! I gave up my profession as a teacher just last year in March 2008 for this new career.

Major sporting awards

Sportswoman of the Year in my state, Drenthe, in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

Other information

I might have a special relationship to Scandinavia. In the current World Cup season 2009-2010 just like in 2008 I again won in Stockholm and took a car for the second time! Quit amazing indeed for still a 'beginner' in international dressage...

I'm now preparing a new Freestyle to music for the FEI World Cup Final Dressage in 's-Hertogenbosch 2010. The musician is Pyntago. I prefer no to comment on more!
